

Please do not challenge the status of the Indiana "no call" list. This action which our Attorney General Carter was able to obtain has brought peace to so many households. If consumers want to purchase something, they have all the opportunity in the world, enhanced now by the Internet. They don't need to be bothered by telephone sales people.